

The Time Traveling Troupe

What is The Time Traveling Troupe?

The Time Traveling Troupe is a serialized comedy series that follows the adventures of the Traveler, and her two companions, Travis and Tiffany, as they journey throughout time. Where and when they go, and what happens, will be improvised based on three suggestions received at the beginning of each show.

The show will be filmed in front of live studio audience and will air online - a first for Oklahoma City and an advancement for Oklahoma film and the arts.

Playing the Traveler will be the talented Raychel Winstead of Villian: The Musical, The MiDolls, and The Ones Your Mother Warned You About. Accompanying her is Kyle Brower of Ballpark Theatre Company and Director/Coach for the Laughing Stocks, and Jessi Kyle of The Big O and Ballpark Theatre Company, who will play as Travis Hartnell and Tiffany Smith respectively. Each night they will be joined with various talented improvisers throughout the metro to play supporting characters.

The first season will contain 12 episodes with a run of time of approximately 40-minutes each. Episodes will be available to watch for free via YouTube for everyone and nightly tickets will be available for $10 for the live performances.

The Deal

The Time Traveling Troupe has a special Sponsors' Package to help produce the show. The funds will be used for renting the theatre space, insurance, and promotional materials. This premium deal is only available for four advertisers. The package includes the following:

Poster Advertisement

At the footer of the show's poster, you'll have a 5.25" by 2" advertisement space for your business. These 11" by 17" posters will be distributed throughout the metro and will be available for purchase during the run of the show.

Program Advertisement

The same ad used on the poster will be featured on the show's program.

YouTube Advertisement

In rotation throughout the 12 episodes, at the beginning of four episodes, your business will be thanked with a special "Brought to you in part by" message. In the end credits, everyone will be thanked.

Sponsors' Table

In the lobby, a table will be available for the sponsors to promote themselves with flyers, buttons, goodies, etc. We'll even pick up your stuff for you.

Season Tickets

Every night of the run, you'll have four tickets available. The tickets will be on hold at the box office under the name of your business. The best part? They can be shared with your employees for their hard work. Treat your employee of the week to a show or for their Birthday. They're your tickets to share.

All of this is available for just $500!
